Archdiocese of Detroit East Catholic High School Demolition

The Archdiocese of Detroit is about to commence demolition of the East Catholic High School. This project will occur in two phases. The first phase will be to remove any environmental issues beginning on January 16, 2012 with completion expected about February 15, 2012.

The second phase is the demolition of the building which will begin about February 20, 2012 and will be complete about April 30, 2012. Upon completion the site will be cleaned up and seeded for grass.

An effort will be made to minimize the inconvenience to area residents. Should you have a complaint or question, please notify the contact listed below.
