

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 1

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

October 13, 1961

- Mach

SENIORS DENNIS GALLUS AND FRED REAM qualified as semi-finalists in the national Merit Scholarship Test taken last spring by all in their division. Later this year these all-A students will take the College Board Achievement Test which will verify the results of the first testing. (Issues sent to home addresses were folded and Scotch taped. The Prelude lasted for 40 years, but the tape turned yellow.)

Sr. Remigia, Teacher, Dies

Mike Hayden discusses "these crowded halls"

Bob Daigle, '61, is a U of D math major

Ron Thayer, '57, is a U of D journalism major

- Machr

TEUTON GRIDDERs relaxing before a De La Salle scrimmage are (front row) Phil Dipzinski, Don Missant, Lester Scotti, Dennis Abood, (second row) Ken DuLaney, Arnold Stefani, Jim Koch, Joe Chattinger, Joe Sorgi, George Usher, (third row) Jim Kolevar, Sam Belfiori, Richard Augustyn, Charles Bigenwald, Jim Craatz, Frank Catalogna.

Mr. Chet Pilat joins St. Anthony as physical edu

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 2

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

November 17, 1961

- Kontowski

SAH'S ONLY ALL-A STUDENTS, Sophomores Joan Mullin, Alan Zerbst, Chris Young, and Chris Stocker are proudly pointed out by Sister M. Gilbertine ont he new honor roll plaque.

ROSIE BARTOS, homecoming queen, is crowned by Football Co-Captains Don Missant, Lester Scott, and Phil Dipzinski during halftime. Teutons had already made the two touchdowns which won over Sacred heart.

Mike Hayden discusses "these crowded halls"

Dick Kordos, '59, is a U of D television major. He talks about colleges and careers

Bob

Rich

Larry

Leo

Tony

Fernanda

Ron

Don

Joe

Tony

Pat

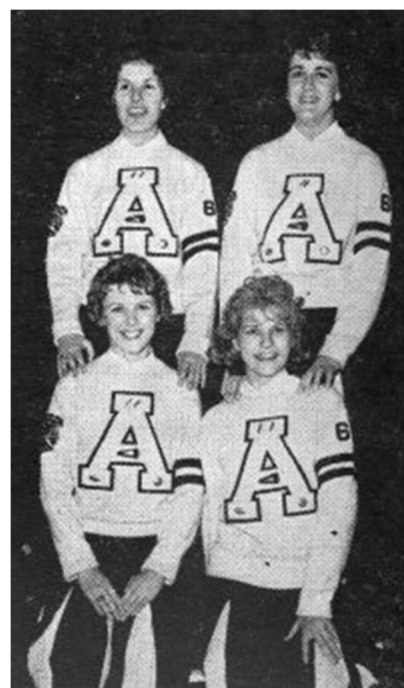

Elaine

Bob and Rich Monicelli, Larry and Leo Lalonde, Tony and Fernanda Magni, Ron and Don Kontowski, Joe and Tony Pink and Pat and Elaine Baluch talk about life as twins at St. Tony's.

GEORGE USHER IS BROUGHT DOWN by a Sacred Heart player after a short yardage gain. Chester Sipsock comes up behind.

- Kontowski

SENIOR CHEERLEADERS Heidi Adelsback, Marilyn Streling (standing), Sue Benninger, and Kathy Schott grin after the homecoming victory.

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 3

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

December 21, 1961

- Kontowski

'THE STINGIEST MAN IN TOWN,' Ebenezer Scrooge, was played and sung by Mike Hayden in the recent choral production.

SODALISTS Pat Lear, Mary Lou Mueller, and Linda Giasson hang up the school Advent wreath. Students follow the ceremonies over the p.a.

- Kontowski

CHRISTMAS SHOPPING is a double task for Jean and Joan Rivard, who were overlooked in last issue's article on twins.

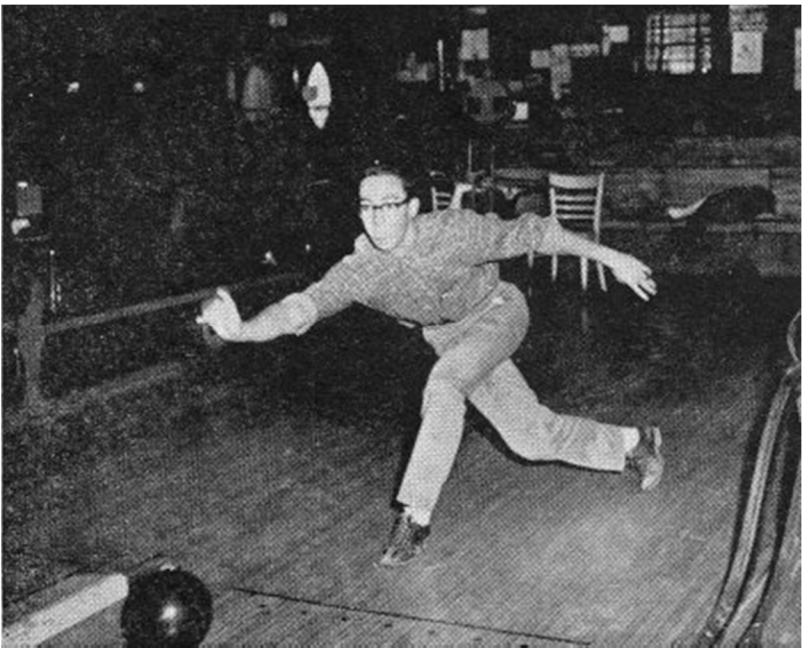

- Mach

MARY ANN MANSFIELD, who led SAH scorers in the St. David tournament, takes aim at the hoop.

- Kontowski
ACE REBOUNDER Paul Fink taps one in during practice session.

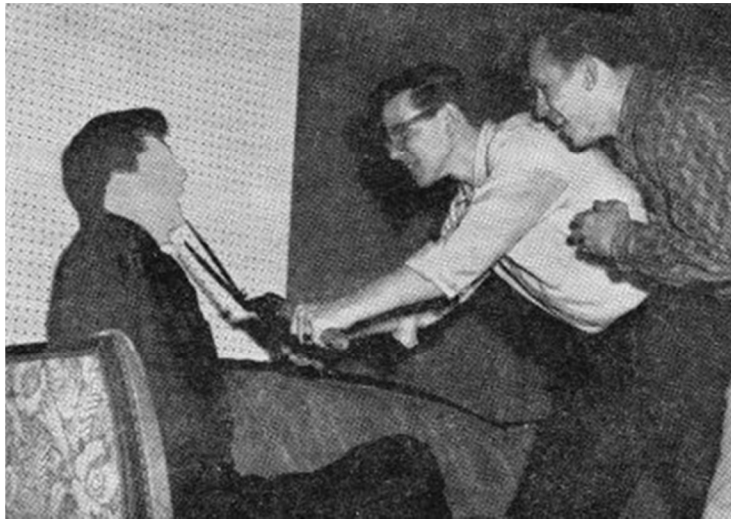

- Kontowski
FOUR-STEP DELIVERY and left hook are demonstrated by Ray Kavanagh at Wurm's Recreation.

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 4

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

February 16, 1962

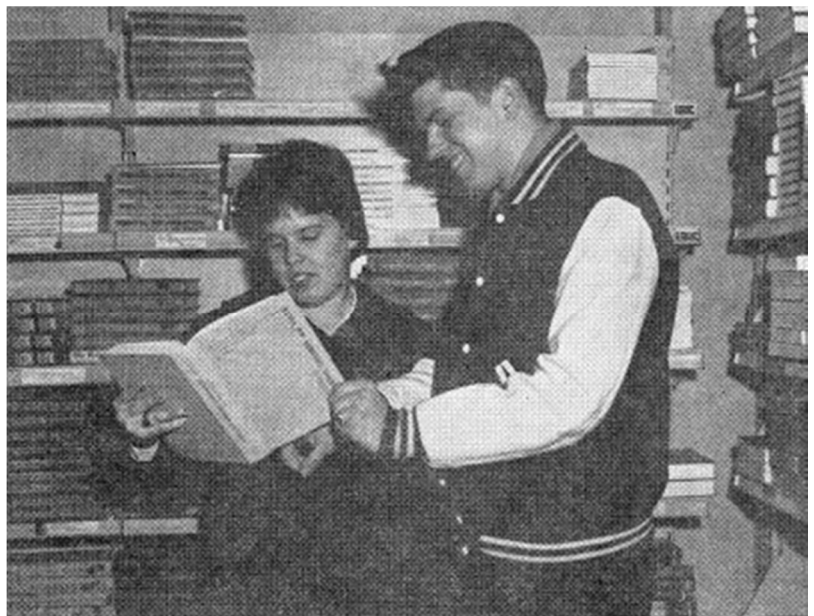

- Kontowski
ALEXANDER ARLINGTON'S ghost seems to be in danger when Joe Chattinger and Jerry Treas, as the two butlers in 'Who Dunit?' go after him with garden shears.

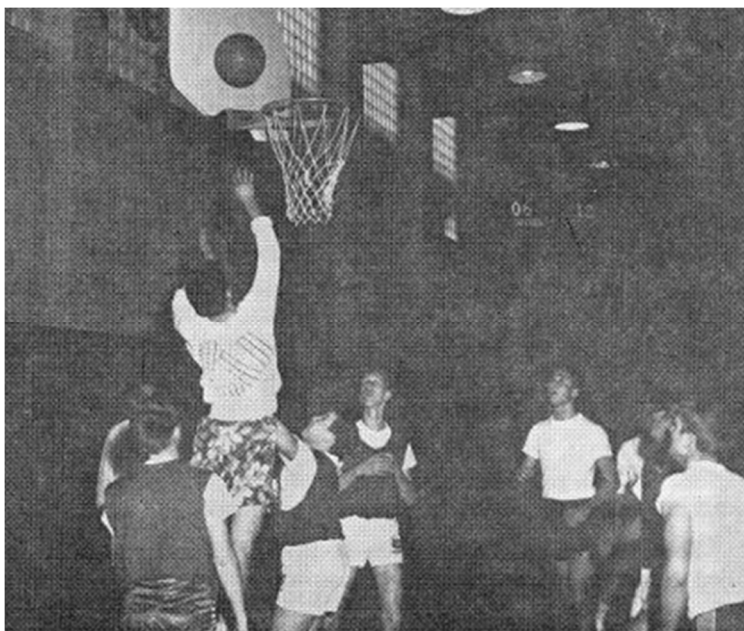

- Mach
AS THE ANAPHORA of the Greek Rite Mass, Father Joseph Pohorilak of St. Nicholas Parish presents the oblation to the Father.

- Kontowski
'THAT THEY MAY KNOW the truth' is the work of Fr. James Maloney, assistant mission director of the Detroit archdiocese.

- Kontowski
REGULAR BUYERS OF PAPERBACKS, Lois and Ed Weidenbach pose in the hardcover department to encourage Prelude readers to buy books.

- Kontowski
JIM KRAATZ, of the Conquistadores, drives in for a layup during intramural play.

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 5

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

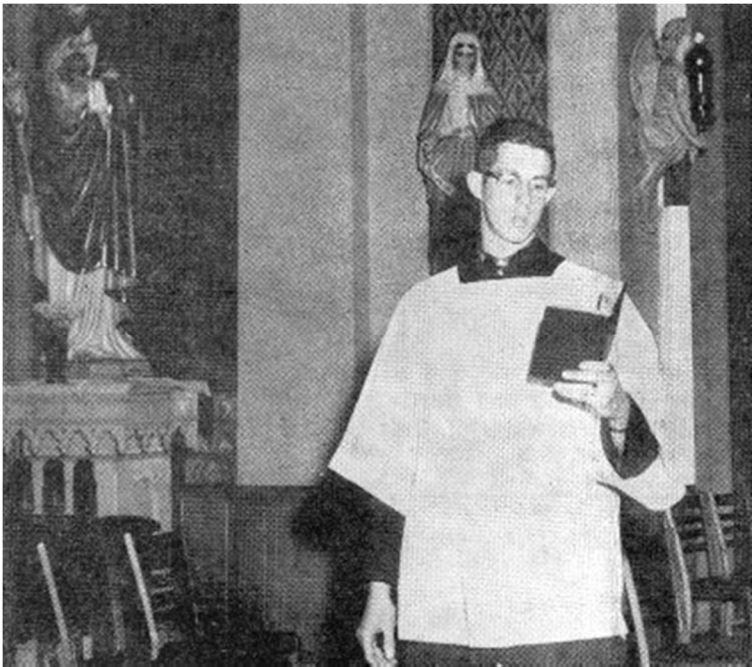

April 13, 1962

PROM KING RICH AUGUSTYN and his date Judy Szulczewski anticipate "Some Enchanted Evening" April 27.

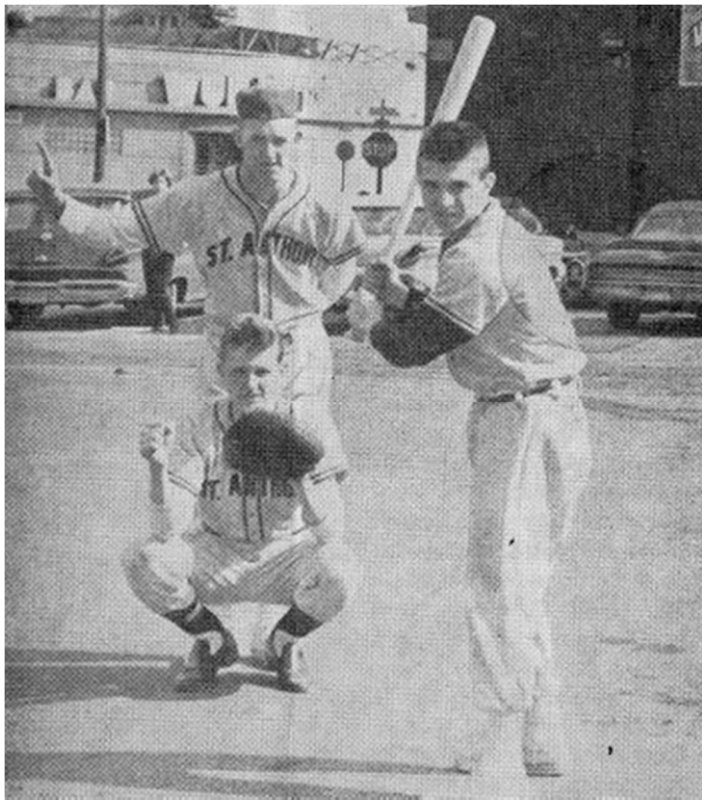

FLAG COMMITTEE chairman Fred Ream and Student Council president Larry Lalonde hoist the flag in its new location above the office.

ACTING AS LECTOR at Mass, Vernon Popowski reads the lesson of the day.

SOPHOMORE KING Jerry Jagoda and Queen Elain Ksiazek smile at the results of the Mardi Gras competition.

- Mach

JIM KOCH gets set to hit as Gary Lieder catches and Frank Gregory indicates the count.

- Mach

Jim Shipan discusses working part-time at Tiger Stadium.

Prelude

Vol. 21, No. 6

St. Anthony High School, Detroit Mich.

May 29, 1962

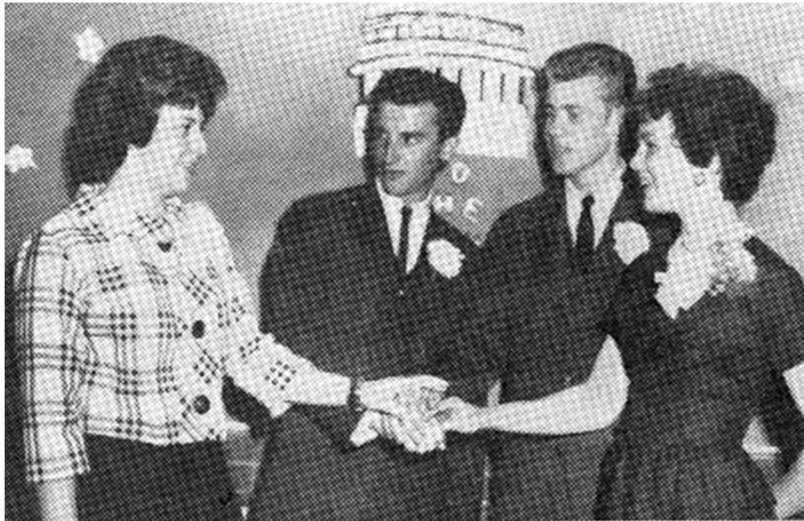

- Kontowski

FOUR YEARS' ACHIEVEMENT shows in the diploma held by Don Missant.

Tribute paid to S. M. Gilbertine as she leaves St. Tony's to resume teaching.

- Kontowski

STUDENT COUNCIL LEADERS joined forces of the Casey and Kildare parties. Barb Giraud, vice president; George Prosperi, president; Gary Krupa, treasurer; and Chris Stocker, secretary, hope for a successful year.

Barbara Moseley takes over "these crowded halls" from Mike Hayden.

- Kontowski

WITH SEVERAL OTHER BOYS, Joe Jaster takes typing for his own personal use.

- Kontowski

ROLLED UP SLEEVES, straw purses, and no coats on Pat Coffield, Kathy Sczempek, and Barbara Wodecki show that summer vacation is near.

- Kontowski

MARSHA DETTLOFF slides into third as St. Rita's Sandra Hahnberg prepares to make the tag.